Below you will find an overview of the reports and publications on biodiversity related subjects in the Dutch Caribbean that have recently been published.

Below you will find an overview of the reports and publications on biodiversity related subjects in the Dutch Caribbean that have recently been published.

Vermeij, M.J.A. (2017). Final assessment of The consequences of construction activities associated with the building of the second megapier on the coral reefs near the Holiday Beach Hotel, Curacao

Student Reports

These reports and publications can be found in the Dutch Caribbean Biodiversity Database (DCBD) (http://www.dcbd.nl). The DCBD is a central online storage facility for all biodiversity and conservation related information in the Dutch Caribbean.

If you have research and monitoring data, the DCN secretariat can help you to get it housed in the Dutch Caribbean Biodiversity Database (DCBD). Please e-mail us: research@DCNAnature.org